The Weather Probabilities, Feb. 20, 1882.—For the Middle Atlantic States warmer, cloudy, rainy weather, winds shifting to easterly, stationary or lower pressure.

FOR THE PENITENTIARY.—Sheriff James E. Carothers, of Loudoun county, accompanied by Deputy Sheriffs Wm. S. Sammons and Thomas N. Carothers, arrived here this morning with two prisoners, Edward Green, white, and James Arthur Morris, colored, convicted at the last term of the Loudoun Court of crimes against the Commonwealth, and sentenced to the penitentiary. Both the prisoners were lodged in the station house until eleven o'clock, when they were taken to the train which left here at that time for Richmond. Green, who is a young man, not more than 25 years of age, with a fine, pleasant face, was sentenced to the penitentiary about two years ago for stealing a horse from Mr. Washington Haynes, of Loudoun county, for five years. He escaped after serving two years of his term, went back to Loudoun and stole the same horse over again, at which crime he was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years. With the additional five years for second conviction, and three of old term, Green goes to the penitentiary this time for 23 years. He appeared freely, laughed and joked, and declared his intention to be the "biggest rascal in Loudoun county."

James Arthur Morris goes to the penitentiary for 16 years, six years for house breaking, and ten years for rape on a little colored girl, Morris is an Alexandria negro. His grandmother, Harriet Grayson, lives on Washington street, near the canal.

LEFT FOR PARTS UNKNOWN.—Mr. H. S. Barker, a young business man of this city, made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors Sunday night last, and left for parts unknown. In an advertisement elsewhere in to-day's Gazette, Mr. Barker says his assets are ample to meet all the claims of his creditors. His liabilities are about $2,000. Whether the assets available will cover this indebtedness cannot be known until a settlement is had. Messrs. Gregory & O'Brien, are made preferred creditors for a debt of about $700. All kinds of rumors regarding the sudden departure of this young man, who has lately, by the death of his father, come into possession of what was supposed to be a good business, were all set on the streets to-day. His leaving the city, after doing all he could to satisfy his creditors, is shrouded in mystery. It is said that he left a note stating that he never expected to return. Some declare that he has gone to Australia, while others are equally positive that he will return in a few days, and that he will be in possession of the business of the past in California. His appointment in law is assigned as the cause of the sudden flight of Mr. Barker, who a year ago aspired to be an Auditor of the city.

HAZEL KIRKE.—The N. Y. Madison Square Theatre Company to appear at Armory Hall tonight in the celebrated drama, "Hazel Kirke," arrived in this city this morning, and registered at Green's Madison House. The company brought with them the costumes used in the play in the New York Theatre, together with a variety of new acts of scenery used especially for Armory Hall stage. Hazel Kirke will be presented in Alexandria under the personal supervision of Mr. Massy, the regular stage manager of the Madison Square Theatre, with as much class as it was given before a New York or Boston audience. An unsurpassed entertainment is assured to-night, and a packed house is expected.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Yesterday was a rainy, disagreeable day, and the churches were not much thronged in the morning. All the other pulpits were filled by the resident clergy.

Reverend services have been commenced in the M. E. and Free Methodist Churches. The services in the M. E. Church are conducted by Rev. Dr. Paulson. Rev. George Ekers, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will preach in the Free Methodist Church to be followed each night during the week by Rev. Amos Shirley, an evangelist.

POLICE ITEMS.—Emma Walker, colored, arrested Saturday last in this city for robbing the residence of Mrs. Catherine Taylor, in Fifth street, where she was a servant, was sent to jail this morning for further examination. Mary Hill, colored, who was arrested Saturday last for robbing the residence of Mr. S. F. Gregory, on St. Asaph street, where she was a servant, was released yesterday by the Mayor, on account of her delicate condition, for a future examination. David L. Smith, colored, was sent to the chain gang for thirty days, by the Mayor, this morning, for being drunk and disorderly.

GRAND LODGE K. OF P.—The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Virginia, which meets in Portsmouth tomorrow evening, will be presided over by Wm. A. Edwards, Grand Master. A large number of delegates from the lodges of Loudoun and Fairfax arrived here to-day to go to Norfolk to-night. Dr. A. V. Cox and E. L. Tolson will also go down to Norfolk to-night to represent Oriental and Mechanics Lodges. A large number of uniformed Knights will be in attendance at this session of the Grand Lodge, and a big time is expected.
